

CHANCELLOR'S REPORT

Summer 2013

The Emil Usibelli award recipients were honored at a reception March 6 at the UAF museum. For the 22nd year, the three $10,000 awards were funded by a generous $600,000 endowment established by the Usibelli Coal Mine.

Joe Usibelli, Jr. spoke about his and his father's commitment to giving back to their alma-mater, and their philanthropic partnership. The UAF supports students, faculty, capital projects and much more.

Over 200 dedicated donors, students, faculty and friends gave to the UAF in 2012. The total amount of gifts was $1.6 million, a 15% increase over the $1.4 million given in 2011. The largest gift was $500,000 from the UAF Foundation. Other major gifts included $100,000 from the UAF Foundation, $50,000 from the UAF Foundation, and $25,000 from the UAF Foundation.

