

	Introduction of issue. Handout at last meeting. 9. Food service at remote locations on campus - John Craven Handout by Howald at a previous meeting. Larger issues. 10. Present standards for building signs; are they adequate? Please study the new sign at the O'Neill building before this meeting. Read the section on signs at page 75 in the '91 Master Plan. Copy of the FS Design Standard 11. Re-write of the UAF Campus Master Plan Report by the committee assigned the task of outlining the work. Revised UAF Campus Master Plan Created: January 1999 Members (executive committee and additional volunteers): Chris Bennett, Rick Caulfield, John Craven, Carter Howald, Deb Wells (convenor) Purpose: To draft an outline for a new UAF Campus Master Plan and assemble materials, as they become available.
--	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Members Present:

12. Web Site

13. Discussion of Parking Issues