

Management: trails would be multi-use, but primarily for walkers. Dogs would be okay on leash, bikes may need to be prohibited if these trails remain primitive. Perhaps a management sign that designated the trail as a primitive trail. Risk management and accessibility issues would need to be considered. Perhaps a management sign that designated the trail as a primitive trail.

1. Risk management and accessibility issues would need to be considered. Perhaps a management sign that designated the trail as a primitive trail.

Management: trails would be multi-use, but primarily for walkers. Dogs would be okay on leash, bikes may need to be prohibited if these trails remain primitive. Perhaps a management sign that designated the trail as a primitive trail.

the 'walkway' and then lead through the woods to the Chapman building and lower campus.

2. See West Ridge- Main Campus trail for discussion of Risk Management and accessibility issues.

3. Improvements, Signs on cvt. 3-4 foot trail into hillside. Planted trees

v. Maintenance

1. Periodic packing with snow machine

d. ~~Back Highway/Coast Intersection to Experimental Farm Concrete trail. This~~ ~~is a maintenance area for periodic snow machine packing above the road and above~~ ~~Kidge.~~

i. Meltise

ii. Current status: used regularly, occasional pedestrian traffic above West

Tarana on east side of Botanical Gardens

iv. Maintenance: pack with snow machine in winter?

e. General (not on map) - ~~Bike lanes/wider shoulders need to be added to:~~

(i) Yukon Drive west of Museum

(ii) Southwest portion of Tarana Loop