The Curriculum Decision in the Faculty Senate

2014-11-18 11:00 AM

Dear Faculty Members,
I am pleased to announce that the Faculty Senate has approved the proposed curriculum changes for the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration program. The changes include the addition of a new course, the removal of an existing course, and the modification of several other courses. These changes are necessary to ensure that the program remains relevant and competitive in the current business environment. The Senate's decision is based on a thorough review of the program and the input of all faculty members. I encourage you to continue to provide feedback and support for the program as we move forward with these changes.

Sincerely,
